SNAP: possible_match (score 4.6)

Why SNAP?

- The household has a total monthly income of $950, which may be below the 130% FPIG threshold for eligibility.

Example 4: Mr . and Mrs. A apply for SNAP for themselves and one child. The CAO gives them PUB 567, Help for Pennsylvanians in Need . The CAO reviews the case file and discovers that Mr. A is still within the 12- month period of ineligibility for an intentional program violation (IPV). The family…

- The household has a high utility burden and has indicated a need for heating assistance, which may qualify them for the Standard Utility Allowance (SUA).

A household is entitled to expedited service if it meets any of the following criteria in the month of application: - All members are migrant or seasonal farm workers who are destitute as defined in Chapter 516, Migrant or Seasonal Farm Workers, have $100 or less in liquid resources and nothing…

- The household is receiving unearned income from unemployment and child support, which is considered in the SNAP eligibility assessment.

- Foster care payments when the household chooses to include the foster child or adult as a household member - Adoption assistance payments - Pensions withdrawn as a recurring payment - Payments made to provide energy assistance to households without an elderly or disabled member Example: Money…

Explanation

You may qualify for SNAP, Medicaid/CHIP, and LIHEAP. SNAP could help with food costs since your income is low. Medicaid/CHIP may provide health coverage for you and your daughter. LIHEAP can assist with your heating needs, especially since you received a shutoff notice.

Next Steps

- Gather required documents for each program.
- Apply for SNAP, Medicaid/CHIP, and LIHEAP.
- Contact a caseworker if you have questions.

Checklist

SNAP

- Proof of household income for the last 30 days
- Social Security numbers for household members applying for SNAP
- Proof of household expenses if claiming deductions
- Signed SNAP application or COMPASS submission confirmation

Medicaid/CHIP

- Employer and income information for everyone in the household
- Policy numbers for current or recent health insurance
- Proof of identity
- Proof of U.S. citizenship or lawful non-citizen status

LIHEAP

- Recent bill from the main heating source

- Proof of household income for each household member
- Employer statements, pay stubs, or award letters for income verification
- Lease or rent documentation if heating costs are included in rent

Caveats

- This is prescreening only.
- This is not an official determination.
- Additional evidence may change eligibility.
